METAWELL

Gharieni's new Libra treatment table cements the company's position as the trendsetting company in the Wellness and Spa arena. Cutting edge in design, this creates a new water experience for clients who are in a relaxed supine position on a heated treatment table that is fully adjustable in height and length. The integrated state of the art technology provides a unique choreography of varying water temperatures and pressure which is programmable in an interactive control panel. Depending on the client's needs, there are preset water choreographies for balancing, stimulating or relaxing effects.
