aquaform

Emotional shower, the union between aquatherapy and chromotherapy

Born from the magical combination of aquatherapy and chromotherapy, the Sensus collection invites you on a journey through senses and emotions, creating moments of incomparable well-being. The skin contact with water, associated with the chromotherapeutic atmospheres of light and colour, brings benefit to our inner life as well as to our physical wellness.

Infinite combinations of jets and lights to animate your sensations through the minimal design of a set of showerheads designed around the body.
