Wellness USA™

The Future of Full-Body Recovery— Heat, Light, & Rejuvenation

Discover the CocoonWellness POD™ a patented, multi-sensory wellness experience that redefines recovery and rejuvenation. Blending advanced infrared technology with bio-stacking, it surrounds you with Red-Light & Chromolight, soothing aromatherapy, vibration massage, and infrared heat up to 190˚F (88˚C). Compact and stylish, the CocoonWellness POD™ fits perfectly in luxury homes, spas, or commercial wellness centres. The result is a luxurious, full-body escape that refreshes, recharges, and restores your total well-being.

The CocoonWellnessPOD™ is designed to elevate core body temperature while maintaining user safety and comfort. By keeping the head outside the unit and under continuous cooling airflow, the system enables effective thermal conditioning without overheating. Sessions of 15 to 60 minutes can incorporate passive relaxation or light exercise, supporting increased energy expenditure, enhanced metabolic activity, and improved physiological adaptation.
