Dry Heat Pod Infrared Red Light, Infrared Heat & Aromatherapy: Healing Vibration Massage for Wellness, Recovery & Weight Management Balance

Discover theSlimWell™360°a patented, multi-sensory wellness experience that redefines recovery and rejuvenation. Blending advanced infrared technology with bio-stacking, it surrounds you with Red-Light & Chromolight therapy, soothing aromatherapy, vibration massage, and deeply penetrating infrared heat up to 190˚F (88˚C). Compact and stylish, theSlimWell™ 360˚fits perfectly in luxury homes, spas, or commercial wellness centres. The result is a luxurious, full-body escape that refreshes, recharges, and restores your total well-being.

The SlimWell™360˚ is designed to elevate core body temperature while maintaining user safety and comfort. By keeping the head outside the unit and under continuous cooling airflow, the system enables effective thermal conditioning without overheating. Sessions of 15 to 60 minutes can incorporate passive relaxation or light exercise, supporting increased energy expenditure, enhanced metabolic activity, and improved physiological adaptation.
