METAWELL

The Ancient art of sand bathing, re-invented!

The luxurious design of the MLX Quartz sand bed offers a signature psammotherapy experience that promotes deep relaxation and mind-body recovery—for the ultimate 21st century wellness experience.

As the sand envelops the body in a warm cocoon, feelings of stress melt away. The treatment table can be gently inverted, and the built-in Dynamic Flow massage system eases tensions and boosts circulation. This signature experience offers pain relief to aching muscles and joints, nourishes the immune system, and leaves the individual feeling refreshed, rejuvenated, and peaceful.

The grounding and warming effect enhances the integration of other treatments including massage and the use of sand poultices – creating an extraordinary experience for the guest.

Elevate your clients' experiences with this natural wellness treatment offering a much-needed getaway from the stresses of daily life.
